CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 21st December 2005.

P.C.

. After this application was heard for some time, Mr.Tatkare, A.P.P. hands over a copy of a letter dated 21st December 2005 addressed by the Senior Inspector of Police, E.O.W., G.B., C.I.D., Mumbai. In this letter, which is addressed to the A.P.P. it is pointed out that after filing of the charge sheet in C.R.No.70 of 2005, further investigation has been conducted and report is likely to be filed after these investigations are complete. Some of the details pertaining to the present applicant during the course of such further investigations are set out. Copy of this letter is handed over to the original complainant as well as Mr.Pasbola, learned Counsel for applicant - accused. It is pointed out that further information and details are awaited, including from Income Tax Department.

2. In the light of this development, Mr.Pasbola withdraws instant application with liberty to move sessions court for identical relief as well as pointing out to the sessions court the events after earlier application is rejected, including the details set out in this letter. Needless to state that if such an application is made for being enlarged on bail, the sessions Judge will decide the same on its own merits and in accordance with law, uninfluenced by the observations made in the earlier order.
